“It Doesn’t Matter What You Do”

July 10, 2016 / Dan Solofra

²⁵ He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification. ¹ Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 4:25-5:1, NIV

Jesus’ perfect _____ and sacrificial _____ restores our relationship with God.

In God’s eyes it is _____ never sinned.

²⁰ The law was brought in so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more, ²¹ so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Romans 5:20-21 NIV

God gives his law to _____ my sin. Jesus’ payment for sin ushers in a new life-giving _____ in my life.

¹ What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase? Romans 6:1, NIV

Sinful nature conclusion: I can _____ all I want because Jesus has _____ for all of them.

² By no means! We are those who have died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? Romans 6:2

New man conclusion: Sin is so _____! Now that I am clean from it, I want to stay as _____ from it as I can.

³ Or don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. Romans 6:3-4, NIV

My sinful nature is _____ in baptism.

Now I _____ live a new life.

⁵ For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly also be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶ For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body ruled by sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin— ⁷ because anyone who has died has been set free from sin. Romans 6:5-7, NIV

¹ It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery. . . . ¹³ You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. Galatians 5:1,13, NIV

Every day I need to _____ my sinful nature.

As long as I keep on sinning, I am a _____ to it.

Jesus set me _____ to live a life of _____.

¹³ Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace. Romans 6:13-14, NIV

A life of sin is a life of _____ under a _____.

A life of love is a life of _____ under _____.

MEMORY VERSE

We are those who have died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? Romans 6:2, NIV

Bottom line: Jesus saved me from the filth and slavery of sin. In thanks, I will daily fight temptation and live a life of love.
